

November 12, 2021

Local Author Gives Back to Support LLGAMH

Edie Batstone loves to write. And she loves to inspire. Her latest work, entitled 'The Spring' is a collection of original poetry and musings written to lift the spirit. And it certainly does.

Now, Edie is also helping to support those with mental health and substance use challenges. She is donating the net proceeds from the sale of the book to Lanark, Leeds and Grenville Addictions and Mental Health (LLGAMH). Edie recently presented two cheques to LLGAMH totalling $1,000!

In her dedication in the book, LLGAMH CEO Patricia Kyle noted: "Words are so powerful, and Edie's ability to turn them into these beautiful poems is inspiring. Her writings about mental health, well-being, and the importance of listening speak to the work done every day at LLGAMH. We are grateful to be the beneficiary of the proceeds from this book of poems – and we thank Edie for illustrating the power of connection in all our lives."

Thank you to Edie for her beautiful words and generosity.

To learn more about Edie and her writing, please visit www.ediebatstone.ca

To learn more about LLGAMH, please visit www.llgamh.ca

-30-

Cutline: The Spring by Edie Batstone

Contact:

Jane Adams

LLGAMH

jane@brainstorm.nu

613-729-4864